"The Voice of Agriculture"

The Gregory Finn Scholarship was established in loving memory of a good friend to agriculture. Gregory L. Finn was Massachusetts Farm Bureau Information & Public Relations Director, a religious and devoted family man, who died of a heart attack in 1983 at the age of 55.

Born in Hyde Park, Greg attended Boston College, Suffolk Law School, and Leland Powers Broadcast School in Boston. He had been host of the WBZ "Countryside" program since its inception, an announcer for WBET in Brockton and WORL in Boston. Greg served as Vice President of Donnelly Advertising and its successor, the New England Outdoor Advertising Company. He was later Vice President of Compton Advertising of Boston.

Though not a farmer himself, Greg possessed a unique ability to bridge the gap between agriculture and suburbia. He was a natural at interpreting and conveying the problems facing farmers in a way that non-agricultural communities could understand. Greg was well aware that a whole generation had grown up without exposure to perhaps the single most vital industry in the Commonwealth...Agriculture.

This scholarship is being awarded in Greg's memory to foster an understanding and perhaps help to close the gap between the farm community and suburban Massachusetts.
